Wow, that was quick. I also like your edits. I will clean this up and get it routing (will try to get that done today – per your comment on timing). I know the last letter had 10 or 14 days and they blasted us on that so I went with 30 days. I think that if we can get this out by next week (assuming that management will take some time) that your timeframe works out. This is not a target for this FY so if it happens to be early FY22 I think that will be fine. They do want this off the books, but I doubt they would be pushing for this FY.

As far as routing goes, like before, include Mita, right?

Those are good to remove, good edit.
Made a few more.

Thanks,

Michele

Here you go. I made one change as I felt those two words made the sentence weird.
